ISSUE 3: THE EPUB3 CREATOR STUDIO FOR FREE

The cartoon for this month's issue is from our own Ari Bernabei. Ari not only does our illustrations for Embellisher eReader books, he can also create special commix for you. If you need to spice-up your business newsletter or website with a fresh and humorous creation, then just email our man Ari and tell him what you need in the way of a topic. He can give you an idea of what it would cost for a single-panel or multiple-panels strip.

THE ONE, TWO, THREE PUNCH DEAL FOR ALL AUTHORS

Our Open Source Partner

One: If you read this newsletter, chances are you are an author and/or publisher of digital content. That's great, because EMRE Publishing, LLC is launching an immediate promotion that will give you free "premium access" to our ePub3 Creator Studio. As you may or may not know, everybody can now register for "standard access." However, with upgraded access, you'll also be able to do a lot more inside the studio, and the most important feature (for both you and for us) is that you can upload your completed embellished eBook into our store to sell it. You just affix the price you want to charge, after completing it, and it will be immediately uploaded. This means you'll receive 85% of the price you charge, deposited into your Paypal account each month ($10.00 minimum total sales must be accumulated in order for the total to be processed into your account). Not only do you get to establish your brand in this cutting-edge technology, you also get to see how your new eBook sells inside our trademarked Embellisher mobile delivery system.

Two: If you decide to participate in this exciting offer, you'll also have the option to enroll in our two online creative ePub3 courses. As long as you upload at least one enhanced eBook into our store during the six months' time period the deal is on, you'll also have complete access to these two innovative courses.

The free course on creative writing is based on the teaching of one of my favorite writing instructors, Gabriele Lusser Rico, who has since passed on. Her contention was that anybody can learn the basic ingredients of being a “creative writer.” Therefore, this course is adapted to teach creative writing with the purpose of showing the learner how to use several innate creative techniques that can be applied to creating multimedia eBooks. It is my hope that once a new learner sees how easy it is to tap into his or her innate creative skills, then he or she will then want to take my more advanced course. This course includes the use of a digital textbook I wrote for this purpose, mentioned earlier, called Running with the Big Dogs: A Creator's Guide to Using Electronic Media.

The Writing Workshop

With the combination of this eText and the online curriculum, the learner will progress onward to the development of his or her own ePub3 title. What makes this eText valuable is the collection of royalty-free media that it contains for the student to use in his or her projects.

Three: If the title you upload into our store happens to be in the Children's or Young Adult's genre, then you can also enter into our contest. You stand a chance to win the promotional prize if your title is chosen as one of the winners.
